

FIFG COMPETITION RULES 2025

1. OVERVIEW & MISSION STATEMENT

THE FIFG competitions and WORLD TOUR 2025 are based on an aspirational concept in which every player is able to play and compete according to their possibilities, on a global (World Ranking), regional (Regional Rankings) and national scale (National Rankings).

It's mission is to foster friendship, camaraderie and competitiveness between all players throughout the world by providing the platform for all Member Countries (MCs) to offer different competitions. The tournaments that MCs can offer will depend on their local sports development measured by the amount of player memberships.

1.1 GENERAL GUIDELINES

The FIFG World Tour will be played entirely under the rules of the Federation for International FootGolf. Every tournament will follow the official rules of the sport, although local rules may apply. All local rules must be available for players before the start of each tournament.

The FIFG Tournament Guidelines must be strictly followed by the MCs organizing the events. Penalties will apply if rules are broken or not dealt with before a competition. FIFG WORLD MASTERS

The Masters is played during non-World Cup years. It will be played during the 2025 season. The World Masters has a qualification system where the best players from 2024 World & Regional Rankings qualify to the events. All regions are entitled to do a Regional Masters to determine the qualified players of the Region. Other players will be able to participate after the confirmation of the qualified players.

The World Masters will award 1000 FIFG points and will only count towards the World Ranking.

FIFG MAJORS – FIFG 1000s

For future FIFG Majors and 500s MC's must meet the minimum eligibility criteria to be able to bid. This criteria will be available in a detailed document released Q1 2025. Please refer to the FIFG bid process document

The FIFG Majors award 1000 FIFG points towards World and Regional Rankings. There are a total of 7 Majors in 2025, the distribution is as follows:

FIFG 500

REGIONS	AMOUNT
Region 1	3 – 4 *
Region 2	3 – 4 *
Region 3	10
Region 4	3 – 4*
Region 5	2-3 (200 min licenses)

*Flex in regions 1, 2 and 4 due to distances within countries. Regions must present the amount of FIFG 500s to FIFG for approval prior to the start of the season. Regions should attempt to have a minimum of 3 500s in their region, to complete the minimum required for World Ranking.

A MC that organizes a 1000 can't host a 500, unless they have more than 12% of the total World Tour Licenses based on previous year (440 WTL in 2025 for 2026).

Regional applications can also be made to the FIFG board to allow an MC to also host a 500.

Additional FIFG 500s can be approved by the Board on a suggestion by the Competitions Committee, for special sponsored or promotional events.

FIFG 250

Every Member Country is allowed to organize an FIFG 250, even if awarded a FIFG 500 or Major. This allows MC to have their most important tournament to be minimum an FIFG 250.

If a Member country is not awarded with an FIFG 1000 or FIFG 500:

- If 100 WT Licenses or more they can organize two FIFG 250s
- If 150 WT Licenses or more they can organize three FIFG 250s.

Any member country that has an FIFG “Points per player” average of less than 9 points may add additional FIFG 250s to bring the average above 9, however they must seek approval of the Competitions Committee before doing so.

Regions should attempt to have a minimum of 4 250s in their region, to complete the minimum required for World Ranking.

FIFG 250 events can be awarded to Member Countries with a significantly higher player per tournament average number than other countries. These events will be awarded at the discretion of the FIFG Competitions Committee.

FIFG 100

These tournaments are the entry level events for players into international tournaments. Member Countries can flex up to a maximum of 14 100s, depending on the World Tour Licenses. A minimum also applies, since it is essential to introduce players into the international spectrum (Regional & World).

	80+	7	4

If this occurs the MC will not be able to organize an FIFG 500, Major or Masters the following year.

It is prohibited to host a local tournament on the same day and course together with an FIFG 500 or 1000 tournament, except for promotional tournaments that need to be approved by the Competitions Committee. It is possible to do so for FIFG 100 or 250 events, however the local tournament must have separate pairings and a recreational licence is recommended.

4.2 FIFG PLAYER LICENSES

FIFG WORLD TOUR LICENCE

To play any FIFG competition, players must be affiliated to the FIFG Member in their country of birth or permanent residency and hold a World Tour License. A player must purchase a WT Licence to be eligible to register for a FIFG tournament. A World Tour License of 20 euros (Junior licence 10 EUR) is required to play any tournament with FIFG ranking points. A player will be able to attend all FIFG events without any additional licenses or membership fees other than from their MC.

A WT License is for a calendar year and is renewable in January of the new year regardless of the month a player obtains it. A player's ranking will be activated after obtaining their membership.

The basic requirement for a FIFG WTL is the MC membership. If a player has their MC licence sanctioned or removed because of disciplinary reasons the WTL automatically expires. The MC has to make the change in the official tournament software and report the reason for the sanction within five days to the FIFG competitions committee and the rules committee.

If a MC issues a WTL for a player that is not eligible as outlined in 4.5.1. there will be an administration fine of 50 EUR per case.

Players from non-FIFG MCs must obtain their WT License directly through the FIFG. (support@fifg.org).

RECREATIONAL LICENCE - NEW

The New Recreational Licence is an initiative by FIFG to welcome new players into the world of FootGolf. Designed specifically for amateur players and those curious to try the sport, this licence offers an affordable and accessible way to experience FootGolf within an official framework. The New Recreational Licence serves as an entry point for players who want to explore FootGolf, providing a structured yet low-commitment way to participate. This initiative aims to make FootGolf more inclusive, foster growth in participation, and inspire players to join the global FootGolf community.

Key Features of the New Recreational Licence:

- Introductory Access: Holders of the Recreational Licence can participate in one World Tour (WT) 100 event, giving them a taste of competitive FootGolf in a friendly and welcoming environment. The detailed conditions for this participation may vary between Member Countries (MCs), ensuring local flexibility while maintaining a consistent standard.

- Affordable Entry: Priced at just €2.50, this licence ensures that cost is not a barrier for new players to experience the sport.
- Seamless Upgrades: Players who wish to continue their FootGolf journey can easily upgrade their Recreational Licence to the World Tour Licence. The €2.50 fee paid for the Recreational Licence will be credited toward the cost of the World Tour Licence, providing a seamless transition for those ready to commit to higher levels of competition.
- Free Registration in the Official Tournament Software System: Holders of the Recreational Licence gain free registration in the FIFG's official tournament software system (BlueGolf). This enables players to access event schedules, track their participation, and gain insight into their performance, all through a professional and easy-to-use platform.
- Support for Member Countries: Member Countries are allowed to use the FIFG tournament system (BlueGolf) at no additional cost for recreational purposes. The Stableford tournament type is available free of charge, making it easier to organize local events for recreational players.

Standards and Conduct:

To maintain the integrity of the sport, the FIFG and the MC reserves the right to deny a Recreational Licence if a player's behavior is found to be inconsistent with FIFG rules, the World Tour document, or other regulations. This ensures a positive and fair environment for all participants.

The New Recreational Licence is not just an entry ticket—it's a stepping stone to becoming a full-fledged member of the global FootGolf community. Whether you're a curious beginner or looking to advance into the competitive realm with a World Tour Licence, this licence provides an accessible and flexible starting point for your FootGolf journey.

In this unique situation the regulation of one single change per lifetime would remain.

Exception applies if any FIFG Member country unifies with another FIFG member country at any point.

4.5.2 PLAYER CONDUCT

Players are expected to play in the spirit of the game by acting with integrity, showing consideration to others, and taking good care of the course. The organizers, head marshal - and FIFG Official have authority to disqualify a player for any serious misconduct that is contrary to the spirit of the game and in accordance with FIFG or local tournament rules.

The use of alcohol, illegal drugs and smoking are STRICTLY PROHIBITED at FIFG official competitions.

Players must be respectful, and organizers reserve the right to remove a player from the competition at any time for any reason.

4.5.3 TIES

In case of a tie, the organizer must stage a playoff for minimum 1st place across all categories (exceptions in 'force majeure' cases) with the option to add a playoff for second and third place or cash and prize positions at their discretion which must be notified before the tournament. If the organizer chooses to not playoff for positions 2+ then countback will be used to split 2nd and 3rd with 4th and below tied. Places 1-3 receive full points, starting in 4th place ties, points will be split.

After the third place, all players involved in a tie will be awarded the average number of points of the positions they hold (If three players tie in 10th position, these players would eventually be in positions 10, 11 and 12. The number of points for these three positions will be added and divided by 3 and this score will be awarded to the three players.)

For all FIFG tournaments (MAJORS / FIFG 500 / FIFG 250 / FIFG 100), the playoff will be played on a three hole playoff for the title. If the players are still tied after the playoff, additional holes may be played or proceed to penalty putts (five putts/players from a minimum of 5 meters) followed by a sudden death penalty shootout if necessary.

If for any reason (climate conditions, lack of sunlight, safety, etc.) the playoff cannot take place, the organizer and marshal will proceed this way: 1st, 2nd and 3rd positions will be decided by the last 18 holes (final round) for a 36- or 54 or more-holes tournament, or by the last 9-6-3-2-1 for 18 holes tournament.

4.5.4 DISPUTES, DECISIONS & PENALTIES

If a protest is submitted, the Committee shall bring its decision within 30 days. Players cannot agree on eliminating the validity of any of the rules, or to disregard any of the issued penalties; if they still do so, the penalty for the breach of the rule, involving disqualification, shall be made without any time limitation.

In case the disputable affair is not being solved between the organizing Committee and the complaining player, they may both submit a request, to reach a mutually approved statement, to the Rules Committee acting as an official FIFG authority, so that they can express their opinion about the fairness of the brought decision. A maximum deadline of 30 days will be given for a player to submit a protest.

If any player is penalized retrospectively, the leaderboard will be updated and any prize money or award must be returned to the organizer to be re-allocated to the corresponding players after the tournament is over. The time limit for any penalization is set at 30 days after the tournament has finished.

If the FIFG opens a case independently, it reserves the right to do so within 180 days, depending on the nature of the case. Players or organizers must deliver evidence or statements within five (5) days of being notified of the case.

A comprehensive protocol will be established to define the processes and procedures for resolving disputes that cannot be settled at the competition level. This protocol will outline clear steps and timelines to ensure transparency and fairness. In the absence of such a protocol, an ad hoc committee will be formed to independently review and address the dispute. Any form of threats, pressure, or attempts to influence referees, committee members, or other officials involved in the resolution process is strictly prohibited and will be treated as a serious violation, subject to a separate and strict disciplinary procedure.

4.5.5 BAD WEATHER

If weather conditions force the organizer to suspend the tournament, full points will still be allocated and the result based on the number of completed rounds if the total number of holes played is at least 50% of the total number of holes.

Before the game, if for any reason (flooding, animal damages, etc.) a hole is declared unplayable, it has to be replaced by another similar hole (same par, similar distance) or cancelled. If more than three holes are declared unplayable, then the entire course could be considered as unplayable and therefore the round may be cancelled.

If this happens during the game (flooding, animal damages, etc.), the tournament director has the authority to make the decision to cancel the hole and give all the player the score of the par in accordance to the approved FIFG Local Rule as outlined below. If more than three holes are declared unplayable during the game, the entire course could be considered as unplayable and the general rules of bad weather apply.

4.5.6 COURSE DESIGN

The designer must take natural weather conditions (strong wind or heavy rain) in consideration when they design in order to prevent unplayable holes. They also have the responsibility to design a course that assures a decent pace of play for the players, especially when setting the pin position.

It is the responsibility of the designer and tournament director to set DROP ZONES and objects to reach the ball easily on the holes which can represent a danger for the pace of play (if there is a big water obstacle to cross for example).

A new course design standards will be published during the 1st quarter of 2025.

4.5.7 REGISTRATION POLICY

World Tour Tournaments Registration Process

MASTERS:

Prequalified players have a 14 day exclusive window to register for The Masters. After this date, the registration is open to all players.

FIFG 250 - 1000S:

Starting from the 2025 season, a standardized registration process will be mandatory for all main FIFG World Tour Tournaments worldwide to ensure equal opportunities for all top-ranked players. To guarantee transparency and accessibility, member countries are required to announce the registration details for each stage at least one day prior to the start of the registration stage on their official social media channels and on the tournament page within BlueGolf. This regulation ensures consistency, fairness, and equal access across all major FIFG World Tour events.

	Registration start	Registration time for top players
FIFG 250	30 days before the tournament	First 10 days
FIFG 500	60 days before the tournament	First 15 days
FIFG 1000	90 days before the tournament	First 15 days

Top Players Group

The "Top Players Group" is defined as follows for each category based on the actual World Tour Ranking at the time of registration: Men: Top 100 players; Seniors 45+: Top 75 players; Seniors 55+: Top 50 players; Women: Top 50 players; Women Seniors: Top 20 players; Juniors: Top 20 players

To secure their spot, top-ranked players must confirm their registration by paying the tournament fee within the designated registration period. Only upon payment is their place guaranteed. During this time, all other players who enter the registration process will be placed on a waiting list. Once the registration period for top players ends, other players can confirm their registration by paying the registration fee. The specifics of this process will be determined by the tournament organizer. If the waiting list includes players from different categories, the following priority order will apply proportionally based on the registration rate: Men, Women, Seniors 45+, Juniors, and Seniors 55+.

WAITING LISTS

If any player from top players group doesn't register on time and he/she is placed on the waiting list then this player takes priority and needs to be placed into the tournament whenever a free spot becomes available. If on the waiting list there are more players from the top players group, the ranking position on the date when the free spot opens will decide. If on the waiting list there are more players from different categories then the following order will be taken: Men, Women, Seniors 45+, Juniors, Seniors 55+.

Players are reminded to check in advance the cancellation policy for all tournaments by contacting the organizer directly. The FIFG accepts no responsibility for loss incurred to FIFG members or players for cancelled tournaments. Players who do not follow the registration and cancellation policy can be blocked on the suggestion of a MC to the Competitions Committee for future tournaments.

4.5.8 LOCAL RULES

Organizers are permitted to introduce local rules approved by the FIFG Rules Committee and must notify players in advance (rules@fifg.org). For FIFG 1000-500, countries must send their local rules for approval.

Local rules must be presented to all players prior to the beginning of the tournament.

FIFG APPROVED LOCAL RULES

The FIFG Rules Committee has the following list of approved local rules that do not require prior consent. These local rules may or may not be applied by the organizers. In case a FIFG tournament official is present he has to approve the additional local rules. The local rules have to be published on the tournament website for all FIFG tournaments above FIFG 250.

Hole average per category per round:

+1.00 v PAR	Tournament Committee to review
+1.50 v PAR	Hole may be declared unplayable and PAR awarded to all players within category affected

HIGH SOCKS

Knee-high socks are required for play in FIFG 250, 500 and Major/Masters tournaments of the World Tour 2025.

BAD WEATHER

In addition to FIFG Rules and as outlined above under the section Bad Weather, when declaring a hole unplayable due to inclement weather, the organizer is entitled to use a wind measuring device or gauge but must announce the speed and timeframe of such a decision before play.

Furthermore, a pace of play guide can be used to remove any hole deemed to create a disturbance to the overall tournament pace of play. Again any information must be shared before play.

PACE OF PLAY

Pace of play regulations and control are mandatory for all FIFG tournaments from 250 level and above. An example pace of play table can be found in the tournament manual.

4.5.9 ORGANIZER CONDUCT

Organizers must report the name of the Tournament Director and the name of the Head Marshals before the beginning of the competition.

Each organizer has the authority to adopt their own Code of Conduct for their tournaments if it still respects the FIFG rulebook guidelines about etiquette and behavior.

Any FIFG Member Country with outstanding debt (membership fees or tournament fees) from the previous season will be unable to stage ANY FIFG tournament until the payment is cleared.

4.5.10 FIFG LOGOS

FOOTGOLF LOGOS OF ORGANISATIONS NOT ASSOCIATED TO THE FIFG ARE PROHIBITED. SANCTION COULD POTENTIALLY REACH PLAYER DISQUALIFICATION.

4.6.1 WORLD CUP SPOTS

The 2025 World and Regional ranking will give the following spots for the next Individual World Cup:

Ranking	Men	Senior Men	Women	Senior Plus	TOTAL
WORLD	Top 5	Top 5	Top 3		13
Regionals	Top 3	Top 3	Top 3	Top 3	48
Total	17	17	15	12	61

For all future World Cups, the allocation of individual spots for players will be determined based on the World Cup guidelines. All players/athletes must hold a valid World Tour license and meet all other requirements set by FIFG or other relevant organizations for the World Cup, as published prior to the event. Players subject to disciplinary sanctions will not be permitted to attend the World Cup and will forfeit any qualification rights they may have earned. Additionally, players may only compete in the category in which they qualified, even if they move to a different category during that season.
